Ere the first sunbeams, Bright - en the hill - streams, True as we parted,

Lovd ones shall meet us, Pure lips shall greet us, Eyes that are brimming,
Sew - ing, and humming Words of my com - ing, Hop - ing and patient,

True as we parted, True as we part - ed, I'd clasp her a - gain.

Eyes that are brimming, Eyes that are brimming shall thrill us like wine.
Hop - ing and patient, Hop - ing and pa - tient, yet count - ing the hours.

CHORUS.

SOPRANO. O that pretty little cottage on the lawn by the sea, Down by the sea,

ALTO. O that pretty little cottage on the lawn by the sea, Down by the sea,

TENOR. O that pretty little cottage on the lawn by the sea, Down by the sea,

BASS. O that pretty little cottage on the lawn by the sea, Down by the sea,

Down by the sea, O that bright-eyed little beauty who is watch-ing for me,

Down by the sea, O that bright-eyed little beauty who is watch-ing for me,

This system contains the first two staves of the song. The first staff is the vocal melody in treble clef, and the second staff is the piano accompaniment in treble clef. Both staves are in the key of D major (two sharps). The lyrics are written below the first staff. The piano part features a simple harmonic accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes.

Down by the sea, Down by the sea.

Down by the sea, Down by the sea.

This system contains the next two staves of the song. The first staff is the vocal melody in treble clef, and the second staff is the piano accompaniment in treble clef. Both staves are in the key of D major (two sharps). The lyrics are written below the first staff. The piano part continues the harmonic accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.
